Quarrels Become Violent, Injured Rule Out Charges

BY PAM TROBOY

Violence erupted in Plano this weekend with four separate assaults reported.

Three persons were shot, one was dragged behind a car, one was beaten and another was threatened by a broken bottle, police said.

In the most serious incident, a quarrel boiled over into the street in the 1100 block of Avenue F shortly before midnight Friday. Although details are still sketchy, police believe that an argument in an Avenue F residence became so heated that one of the participants left and returned with a gun to settle the dispute.

The men then went outside the house where a crowd quickly gathered. Apparently one of the bystanders attempted to stop the shooting and he and the two originally involved in the quarrel were all shot by a small calibre weapon.

Investigating officers said neither spectators nor participants were able to give them a clear picture of the shooting. Police added that the weapon had disappeared by the time the first patrol car was on the scene.

Police said all three men are listed in good condition by area hospitals. Odell Moore, 39, of 1027 Avenue F sustained a wound in the left forearm, according to Parkland Hospital officials, while Charles Houston, 43, of 1201 H Pl. was treated at Plano General Hospital for a wound in his upper left arm. Lloyd Maxwell, 64 of Plano who was taken to Wyssong Clinic sustained a bullet wound in the hip.

A department spokesman said Monday it is doubtful that charges will be filed in the incident. Also, no charges are anticipated in the other assaults, he continued.

Police believe the dragging incident in the 700 block of 11th St. at 11:41 p.m.

Friday to be the outgrowth of a family disturbance. The young woman who reported the incident apparently tried to pull another young woman from a car and was instead dragged several feet by the vehicle.

The woman was treated at Plano General Hospital for cuts and bruises and then released. The driver of the vehicle told officers she was attempting to get away, not run over the victim.

In the third incident which reportedly occurred at 1:49 a.m. Saturday in the parking lot of Skaggs Albertsons, police have only a third-hand record of an alleged beating.

Garland Memorial Hospital notified the Plano department early Saturday that an outpatient had reported being beaten at the grocery store located at the intersection of FM 544 and Custer Rd. The man has not filed a complaint in the incident.

The fourth assault was reported at Plano East Apartments at 7:21 p.m. Sunday, but no injuries occurred. A man told police he was threatened with a broken soft drink bottle by a gang of several youths.

Police are also investigating seven thefts and nine burglaries which occurred during the three day period. Six residences and two motor vehicles were burglarized while an attempt was made on another vehicle.

Items stolen included, two bicycles, vehicle keys from a vehicle, a ring, a paper rack, one set of hubcaps and a set of drums valued at $384. The drums were taken from Plano Senior High School. A microwave oven and several citizen band radios were reported taken in the burglaries.

Five persons were arrested including one for possession of marijuana, one on a Plano traffic warrant, one on a Dallas Police Dept. traffic warrant, one for public intoxication and one on Plano and Dallas Police Depts. traffic warrants.

Seven cases of criminal mischief were also investigated. Most of the incidents involved spray painting vehicles, although $2,000 in damage was done to one residence when vandals flooded the home.

Officers also answered 177 calls for assistance, recovered a wallet, a roll of carpet, a ring, a license plate, a bicycle and a marijuana plant and investigated eight accidents.

Deborah Lindeman Rogers of 3616 Sherrye and Janet K. Marshall of the same address sustained minor injuries when the 1974 Ford driven by Rogers went out of control Saturday.

Democrats Set Meet In Austin

Texas Democrats will meet Saturday in Austin at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel at 10:30 a.m. to discuss campaign work for Jimmy Carter in the upcoming presidential election.

Democratic National Committeewoman Billie Carr said that she has received many calls from around the state from people wanting information about when the Carter-Mondale campaign would officially begin in Texas.

Jimmy Carter told the national committee at their recent meeting in New York City, "Don't wait to be called. Each of you go back to your states and start the work you know has to be done. Each of you consider yourself a chairperson of my campaign."

The national Carter campaign is now looking over each state and will select one person to go into the state as the official coordinator for the national campaign.

Carter Headquarters in Atlanta has said that they will make an announcement this weekend about a state coordinator for Texas.

For further information and details, interested Democrats may call the Houston office of the Democratic National Committee at 713-528-2057.

P&Z Denies New Zoning

Two developments were killed by Planning and Zoning Commissioners Monday, one by a movement to table and the other by outright rejection.

The commission denied SF-3 zoning on 52.2 acres in west Plano after determining that Talmadge Tinsley had not put forth sufficient evidence to merit the change from SF-2 zoning.

The property which is located between Preston and Coit Rds., north of FM 544 will remain zoned for 1600 square feet minimum floor area homes. Tinsley's request was denied without prejudice on a 3-1 vote (Roland Dickey opposing).

A 60 acre development proposed by Joe Collins was in effect defeated when commissioners voted 3-1 (Roland Dickey opposing) to table the retail-duplex residential addition.

Collins told the commission he would be forced to drop the development unless he received approval. He explained that he must put up a substantial deposit later this week or lose the property, adding that he could not justify the expenditure without the zoning.

He had outlined plans for 33.8 acres adjacent to Kimberlea as SF-2 residential with deed restrictions of 2400 square feet, 13.7 acres of 2F-2 duplex restricted to 3000 square feet and 12.4 acres of full service Retail.

Commissioners praised his development, which is located on the northeast corner of Parker and Coit Rds. but said they were unable to vote for the request since the entire area is the subject of a planning study. The new master plan should be complete within 60 days.

The annexations and zoning of a 217.4 acre tract in north central Plano received approval on a 3-1 vote (Roland Dickey opposing). The property which is bounded by Spring Creek Pkwy. on the north, Alma Dr. on the west and US 75 on the east will be developed by Leon Hodges.

The commission approved 22 acres of PD-R (planned development full service retail), 54.4 acres LC (light commercial) and 140 acres PD-SF (planned development single family residential).

The residential neighborhood will consist of at least 15 percent of the lots being SF-3 sized and at least 80 percent of the homes on SF-4 lots having at least 1400 square feet minimum floor area.

In other action the commission agreed to call public hearings to amend the zoning ordinance in regard to off-street parking, screening walls and open storage operations and minimum floor area for detached dwellings in duplex zones.

Kindergarten Orientation Scheduled

Orientation for kindergarten students in Plano's 13 elementary schools will be held Friday from 1-3 p.m. at the respective schools.

Parents are invited to bring their kindergarten students to meet their teachers and to learn about the program of study for the students. Class assignments will also be announced at this meeting.

To Widows, Kids

Veteran Benefits Available

Almost a million widows and 797,000 children of veterans are receiving pensions from the Veterans Administration despite the fact that the death of their husband or parent was not directly related to military service. And even more may be eligible, according to Jack Coker, Veterans Administration Regional Director.

Children's eligibility, however, is independent of the mother when she is not entitled to pension. Application should be made in their behalf to any VA office, veterans county service officer, or to service officers of major veterans organizations.

The possible eligibility of all survivors is reviewed by VA when notification of death is received, but sometimes circumstances surrounding the veteran's death do not always provide information to identify all possible survivors. There are no income limits on eligibility for survivor benefits for spouses and children when a veteran's death was the result of military service.

Comedies to Air On Channel 13

The return of "Steam-bath," a hilarious episode of "The Goodies," zany British humor and a slapstick, mimed portrayal of a country picnic highlight the comedy offerings on Channel 13 in August.

An assortment of eccentric characters spend an eventful day's outing in the English countryside on "The Picnic," airing Sunday, Aug. 22, at 9:45 p.m. Top British comedians Ronnie Barker and Ronnie Corbett star as a buffoonish general and his frivolous son, who, along with other cockeyed members of their family, drive out to the country for a picnic on a riverbank.

Bill Oddie, Graeme Garden and Tim Brooke-Taylor, the Cambridge-educated comics who appear in one of England's most popular television series, present their brand of mad and merry humor in "The Goodies," Wednesday, Aug. 25, at 7:15 p.m. Described by Variety as "... a winning formula allowing genuine and original talents to vent contemporary slapstick on a troubled world," "The Goodies" scores high in visual buffoonery, throwaway sight gags, explosive fun and misadventure.

NEVER A PENNY LOST...

No One Has Ever Lost A Penny In A Savings Account Insured By Federal Savings And Loan Insurance Corp.

In 1934, the Congress of the United States created a permanent government corporation to guarantee the safety of savings in member savings and loan associations. It was called the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, a instrumentality of the United States Government.

Since that time, we have gone through several wars and a number of recessions or depressions. In all these years, no one has ever lost a penny in a savings account insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

As our association is a member of FSLIC, insurance of the funds of each insured member to the full legal limit is automatically in effect on savings accounts here - and that applies to both new and old accounts.

Insurance premiums are not charged to the saver, but are paid to FSLIC by the association at a rate fixed by law.

Actually, if this insurance did not exist, your funds in any amount, invested here, would be amply protected by:

- Investment in carefully selected first mortgage loans on homes, United States government bonds and other sound assets.
- Safe, progressive operating policies with experienced local management.
- Substantial reserve funds that are an added factor of safety.

If you have savings over $40,000, and would like the added protection of insurance by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, keep in mind that a husband and wife can have accounts totalling $160,000, fully covered by insurance (a single insured account in the name of each and a joint insured account in the names of both along with a revocable trust account for each.) We will be happy to advise you on compliance with the insurance regulations.

Tornado Looks to Soccer Playoffs

Dallas Hosts Los Angeles;

Could It Be War III?

When is soccer like war?

Soccer is like war when the Dallas Tornado hosts the Los Angeles Aztecs in first round playoff action of the North American Soccer League Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Ownby Stadium.

Coach Al Miller has used the specific word "war" several times in discussing his team's game plan against Los Angeles.

In what could be called War I, the Tornado won 6-3 in a rough and tough match on June 20 at Ownby. But then in what could be termed War II, the Aztecs used blatant fouls, according to Miller, to beat the Tornado 4-1 Saturday, Aug. 14.

So, what we have Wednesday night is a promotion man's dream - War III - and the Dallas Tornado will be prepared to do what it takes to win.

"In the playoffs, soccer is a little more than just a game - it becomes more like war," Miller said.

Stakes Are High

Winner of War III will earn the right to advance in the NASL playoff ladder to play Southern Division champ San Jose, there, on Aug. 20. Winner of that match advances to the Pacific Conference championship match Aug. 24 or 25.

At the end of the trail lies the NASL championship match between the Pacific winner and the Atlantic Conference champions at Seattle on Aug. 28.

Los Angeles and Dallas both want to be in Seattle on Aug. 28, so War III can be expected to be rougher and tougher than either of its forerunners.

Dallas will be bolstering its attack plan with the use of fullback Steve Pecher.

Pecher, who sustained a shoulder separation against Portland July 24, has been pronounced fit for duty and Miller has definite plans for the free agent player.

Pecher's assignment will be to negate the heading abilities of Los Angeles' Ron Davies, forward, who did more to provide the Aztecs with their Saturday 4-1 win than this team mates.

"Los Angeles beat us badly in the air - they dominated us," Coach Miller said about Saturday's contest. "Davis had a great game against us and we are going to have to control him."

"That is why we decided to start Steve Pecher."

"I told Steve I didn't care what he did to control Davies, even if he had to behead him."

"It will be a war between Pecher and Davies," Miller said.

Tight Lipped

Miller said little more about the Tornado's game tactics for Wednesday with the exception of the use of Pecher and that the Tors will be playing rough - if that's what it takes to win.

Miller, the former coach of the Philadelphia Atoms when they won the NASL championship in 1973 over Dallas, has another move to put on Los Angeles but he isn't saying exactly what.

"We will have a lineup change for Wednesday's game but it is something that I don't want to release at this time," Miller the Magician said.

Whatever lineup changes Miller has in mind probably won't effect the Tornado's three leading players - Jeff Bourne at forward, fullback George Ley and mid-

Bellard Expects Good Season

By EMORY BELLARD
Head Coach, Texas A&M University
Written for UPI

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI) — We fully expect to field another highly competitive football team at Texas A&M for the 1976 season.

We lost enough talented players to make a lot of folks think we'll have a dropoff in '76, but we also return a solid nucleus of starters which makes us believe we'll again be in contention for the Southwest Conference title.

In some spots we'll be going with inexperienced youngsters but the big plus factor there is that even though they're young and inexperienced they do possess talent.

Defensively, we may not accumulate the great statistics that made us the No. 1 defensive team in college football last year. However, with six returning starters on hand, we do anticipate that we'll again have a solid, sound and aggressive defense. And, if some of our newcomers progress the way we think they can, we could be right up among the top defensive clubs in the country.

The nucleus of the defense will be the returning starters — end Tank Marshall, tackles Edgar Fields and Jimmy Dean, linebacker Robert Jackson, cornerback William Thompson and safety Lester Hayes.

Our offense could be improved in 1976. The offensive unit last year set all kinds of school records and produced the school's most prolific rusher in Bubba Bean, a firstround pro draft choice. In fact, of our 10 players drafted by the pros, six came from the offensive unit.

We have five starters back on offense. They include quarterback David Shipman, fullback George Woodard, center Mark Dennard, guard Dennis Swiley and tackle Frank Myers.

We feel like we've recruited well every year since we've been at Texas A&M and now we have sound, solid talent in each class. And, our crop of incoming freshmen could prove to be the best group that we've ever recruited for the Aggies. Some of them will step into the playing picture very quickly this fall.

We'll operate from the Wishbone formation again in 1976 but we may add a few new wrinkles to it. We'll use some motion at times and we'll also break the Wishbone at other times.

Our fullback picture is the brightest it has ever been. Sophomore George Woodard is a proven talent and Eddie Hardin, another big sophomore, came on very strongly this past spring

It appears to us that the Southwest Conference will have an interesting and very competitive race this fall. All of our opponents appear to be stronger and we think that more than two or three teams will be fighting for the championship in the latter stages of the season.

But, for right now, our attention is focused on the opening of fall practice Aug. 19 and our season's opener against Virginia Tech at Kyle Field at 4 p.m., Sept. 11.

great deal as a receiver last season.

Offensively, we return eight starters, including the entire starting backfield. The big plus on offense should be the return of quarterbacks Tommy Duniven and Rodney Allison, both of whom played a great deal last season.

Also returning in the backfield will be fullback Jimmy Williams.

Overall, the conference looks to be strong again this season. I feel that there are at least five teams that could win the title in 1976 if everything goes right.

The key to the conference race may be the addition of Houston. The Cougars have a great football tradition and who they beat will go a long way in deciding the Southwest Conference champion.

One thing for certain, whoever wins the trip to the Cotton Bowl will have earned it.

Improvement At Texas Tech

By STEVE SLOAN
Head Coach, Texas Tech University

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI) — After a year of playing in the Southwest Conference, I understand why the SWC is considered one of the toughest conferences in the nation. And it's not going to be any easier to win in 1976.

If our offense can pick up where it left off last season and our defense can mature early in the season, we should be improved, though.

Rebuilding the secondary, finding adequate depth in the defensive line and replacing tight end Pat Felix will be major problems.

We have only one starter returning in the secondary and the loss of all-SWC performer Ecomet Burley will leave a big hole in the defensive line. Also, it's going to be tough to replace Felix. Pat was a tremendous blocker and improved a Austin, Tex. (UPI) — We have a chance — and so much of success is chance — to be a better football team in 1976.

If things fall into place, we should have experience, size and speed, and our offensive and defensive units have some players of all-star quality. If they provide the leadership, barring injuries, we could be stronger than we have been in a few years.

The quarterback situation is a tough one to deal with. It would be unfair to say that Marty Akins wasn't a vital part of our success over the last several years. But it is also unfair to malign the men who will be playing quarterback for us this year.

That's part of college athletics: you have a great player, and when he moves on, naturally you miss his talents, but there are young, enthusiastic people just waiting for their chance, too.

Ted Constanzo got some valuable experience last year, in fact he got much more playing time than Akins did as a freshman. That has to help, plus Mike Cordaro really came on in the spring game. In fact, Mike was so impressive he will really get a look this fall, and the competition between the two should make both of them, and us as a team, better.

And Randy McEachern has a redshirt year under his belt. He has to figure in, too, but it will be later this fall before we know anything.

That, of course, is the unknown. We do know about some people.

There is little question about the talent of Earl Campbell. He has to be one of the best to ever play here or anywhere else. He's a first class citizen and a first class player.

Jimmy Walker and Ivey Suber will start out as the halfbacks, and we have a lot of youngsters coming in as well.

Johnny Jones of Hamlin showed quite a style in the brief times we were able to work with him last year, and if he can shake those injuries, he should really figure in our plans. There is no doubt Alfred Jackson is a quality receiver, and having guys like Billy Gordon, David Studdard, George James and Charlie Wilcox back in the line makes it look strong.

Defensively, Raymond Clayborn is the best defensive back we have had here in quite a spell. He is one of those "all" caliber players. And I am extremely proud of our defensive captains, Bill Hamilton and Rick Fenlaw. They are tremendous people as well as great football players.

Steve Collier is the same kind of guy at safety. He has added a bunch to our team.

Brad Shearer should be ready for a fine year, and I look for Tim Campbell to continue to make things happen. Tim arrives with enthusiasm and authority wherever he goes, and with experience, he, too, can be a great one.

I have always stressed the kicking game, and this could be our best year yet there. We have Russell Erxleben back, and he did a great job in all phases last year. And I think the experience of Clayborn and some new people coming in should give us more speed than we have had.

If the quarterbacks develop as I expect, if the experienced players use their knowledge and leadership, and if the new players quickly learn the difference between scat and sic 'em, we could have a pretty good outfit.

Texas High On Jones

By ROLAND LINDSEY
AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Johnny Jones, alias Johnny Lampasas in Coach Darrell Royal's terminology, is creating the biggest sensation among University of Texas football fans since "Super Bill" Bradley strolled onto the campus 11 years ago.

Jones, a high school football sensation at Lampasas High School who made the U.S. Olympic team as a sprinter, will give the Longhorns a factor their powerful offensive units of the past decade have lacked — burning outside speed.

Longhorn boosters already are beaming about the possible combination of Jones' outside speed and the inside power of fullback Earl Campbell in the Texas wishbone attack.

"This is probably the fastest guy that's ever been recruited, not only by us, but by anybody in Texas," said Wallace Scott, executive secretary of The Longhorn Club, the chief alumni booster group at UT.

"Speed is not everything in football, but this guy not only has the ability of speed, he comes highly recommended as a football player."

Texas has not been totally without speed. Defensive back Raymond Clayborn placed fourth in the Southwest Conference 100-yard dash in 1975, and has been clocked in 9.4. Johnny Jones of Hamlin — the reason Royal refers to the two promising halfbacks as "Johnny Lampasas" and "Johnny Hamlin" — also has exhibited speed when he was not injured.

But the Lampasas product is the first olympic sprinter ever on a Longhorn football team, and his 9.2 clocking in the 100 easily outshines that of his future teammates.

"Out of 225 million people in the United States, he's one of the top three or four sprinters," Scott said. "This is the first time we ever had anybody with that kind of speed."

Scott has never met Jones, who played his high school football only 65 miles from Memorial Stadium and didn't run the 100-yard dash until his senior year.

"But I've already had a couple of calls from people who watched him in the olympic trials, and they've been impressed not only by his athletic ability but by his stature. He seems to be a young fellow mature beyond his years, one who knows what he's doing and where he's headed."

Jones' high school coach, Scott Boyd, concurs with Scott's assessment of the speedster.

"Johnny's a pure All-American kid and he's got a lot of talent. And that's what it's all about," Boyd said.

Highly publicized high school stars have had mixed success as Longhorns. Bradley, a quarterback at Palestine High School before coming to Texas, was plagued by injuries and failed to achieve the superstar status expected of him as an offensive player at Texas, and was finally shifted to defense in his senior season. He has been a regular defensive safety for the Philadelphia Eagles, leading the National Football League in interceptions several seasons.

Fullback Steve Worster came with similar credentials, and was a four year standout for the Longhorns.

Some Texas fans blamed some of Bradley's problems at Texas on the excessive publicity he received, and are concerned Jones could be similarly affected.

Royal predicts the olympic experience — performing before large crowds and the pressure of representing his country in the sprints — will help Jones' prepare for his debut at a Longhorn.

Fall Softball Planned

Organizational Meeting Set by PARD

A fall softball league is being planned by the Plano Parks and Recreation Department and an organizational meeting will be held Thursday, Aug. 19 at 7 p.m. at the PARD Building, 401 West 16th St.

"The meeting will be important and all interested teams should make plans to have a representative present," Jeff Guyton, PARD athletic supervisor, said.

The PARD will be offering league play for Men's Open, Men's Church and Women's Open with games scheduled on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights.

The growing popularity of softball in Plano is the reason behind the fall league offering, according to Guyton.

"The popularity of softball has reached high participation levels throughout the area and Plano is one of the leading cities in the region," Guyton said.

For further information about the meeting, contact Guyton at the PARD Building, 423-4795.

Soccer, Football At 'Y'

Registration for football and soccer is underway at the Plano YMCA through August 28.

Both of the fall sports will begin play in September.

Football is offered to boys in grades three through seven.

Soccer is open to boys in the first or second grades and also available to girls through the fourth grade.

Registration for both programs is being taken at the Plano YMCA at 2601 Glenciff. For further information on either program, contact Richard Tucker, YMCA sports director, at 424-8567.

Both soccer and football is open to members and non-members of the YMCA.

Turn up the heat to clean broiler

By Polly Cramer

Polly's Problem
DEAR POLLY — It seems plastic bread wrappers are forever getting stuck on my chrome broiler while it is hot. I wonder how, if ever, I can remove this plastic without scratching the surface.

I suggest that a hamper be bought for each family member and let them take care of their own wash. This is a terrific help for Mom and a terrific experience for the children. I guarantee they will get fewer clothes dirty. Also, let each child vacuum his own room and make him feel responsible. Give yourself a little break as you have earned it.

Keep a lot of canned potatoes, eggs, hot dogs, hamburger patties, milk, canned beans and soup handy for emergencies so you can pick up and go out with no worries about the children's dinner. Enjoy the summer. Fall will soon be here and back we go to the driving of packing lunches, cooking good hearty meals, grinding kids to school and here and there. — VAL.

DEAR VAL — As to your question I have had good luck reheating the broiler which softens the stuck-on plastic. Unplug and while still hot rub it off. As plastic and appliance are both hot your hand must be protected, so crumple up a paper towel or napkin and rub plastic back and forth until it "balls," or an end loosens so most of it can be pulled away. The residue that remains can be removed by putting rubbing alcohol on the towel and rubbing again. When appliance is cool, remove the dull look by rubbing again with the alcohol. It will gleam like a mirror. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with those bottles with information labels placed so that one has to read through the contents. One in particular is a witch hazel that I use so much.

After crocheting a handbag, I had to line it. I found that sewing two pretty handkerchiefs together and attaching to the inside of the bag made a nice lining. — MRS. D.T.

DEAR POLLY — My neighbors gave us an idea that has saved both my husband and I much sweat and irritation. If you have a stubborn lawn mower, chain saw, edger, etc. leave it in the sun until well heated. When warm through the problem is solved. I no longer have to nag my husband to start the lawn mower for me. — ELIZABETH.

DEAR POLLY — I always put a carton of cottage cheese in the refrigerator upside down and leave it that way so it does not dry out or sour. — FLO.

Polly will send you one of her "peachy" thank-you cards, ideal for framing or placing in your family scrapbook, if she uses your favorite Pointer, Peeve or Problem in her column. Write Polly's Pointers in care of this newspaper.

House Fund. Several local organizations are donating money to the fund, which hopes to have the old George house on Ave. L in Plano moved to a local park before it must be torn down. (Staff photo by Glen Carroll).

As Chosen Career

More Grads Pick Medicine

Medicine and related fields—therapy, nursing, pharmacy, and medical technology—are the leading career choices of some of the nation's best and brightest high school seniors.

Of approximately 1,000 students queried in a poll, 18.4 percent said they plan a medicine-related career.

The largest number of these, 8.8 percent, plan to study medicine itself. Nursing was second choice with 3.7 percent; then medical technology, 2.2 percent; pharmacy, 1.6 percent, and various therapy specialties accounted for the remainder.

Results of the poll were announced by General Mills, sponsor of the General Mills Search for Leadership in Family Living, a national educational-scholarship program. The students graduated last spring. They were the finalists from 735,555 seniors in 14,788 high schools enrolled to take the written knowledge and attitude test on which the scholarships are based.

Second career choice was science—biological, biochemical, chemistry, physics and computer—15.4 percent.

While 10.5 percent of the high school seniors were undecided on their careers, 10.6 percent plan to be engineers and 10.1 percent intend to enter business and marketing.

Communications—journalism, advertising and public relations—attract 9.7 percent of the seniors; political science and public service, 7.6 percent, and home economics—food preparation, nutrition, dietetics—7.5 percent. Only 6.8 percent plan careers in education.

PLEA Gives to Fund

Plano citizens donated 23,400 pounds of newspapers to the newspaper recycling collection bin sponsored by the Plano League for Environmental Action during July.

PLEA presented the income from the paper drive—$85—to the George House Fund sponsored by the Collin County Board of Realtors and the Plano Heritage Association.

The fund is an effort to save an historic Plano house from being torn down. Money is being raised in order to have the home moved to Heritage Park.

All August and September profits from the collection bin will also be given to the George House Fund by PLEA. All persons interested in helping with the project are urged to save their newspapers and bring them to the paper collection bin at Plano Fire Station No. 2, FM 544 and Mill Valley in west Plano. The bin is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The George House Fund currently lacks more than $11,000 of reaching its goal. A PLEA representative stated that if Plano residents saved and donated all of the Plano newspapers until the end of September, $600 could be earned.

Other local public service groups are urged to assist in raising funds for this project. Among the groups already helping raise money for the George House fund are the Heritage Association and the Junior Historians.

A walk-a-thon is planned for early September to add to the growing fund. The event, tagged a "George-a-Thon," will hopefully raise the remainder of the money needed to have the old house moved. Community groups wishing further information about the fund, PLEA or the newspaper drive, may contact Jane Dillon at 424-5817.

In the era following World War II, American artists created work of such extraordinary quality and distinction as to influence contemporary art throughout the world and set the climate for the freedom and exploration characteristic of vanguard art.

"American Art Since 1945", an exhibition opening at the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts on Wednesday, presents 62 paintings and sculpture selected from the world's most prestigious collection of contemporary art. The Museum of Modern Art in New York.

The exhibition surveys the major developments of the postwar period when the United States assumed this role of international leadership in art. Organized by the Museum of Modern Art, with the assistance and support of Mobil Foundation Inc. and of the National Endowment for the Arts, Washington, D.C., the exhibition will continue at DMFA through Oct. 3.

American art of the past 30 years has evolved from European sources, principally Cubism, and the influx of a number of important refugee-artists during the war years stimulated an interest in Expressionism, Dada and Surrealism.

The largest group in this exhibition represents the Abstract Expressionists - the pioneers of the late 1940s and '50s, including Gorky, Still, Pollock, Newman and de Kooning, whose concepts of large scale and concern with the actual painting process as a means of expression, were a challenge to their fellow artists as well as to the public.
